Fox, Senior U.S. District Judge, on January 22, 2008, to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 108 months. On June 6, 2012, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(2), a motion to reduce the original imprisonment sentence from 108 months to 86 months was granted. It was further ordered that upon release from imprisonment the defendant be placed on supervised release for 60 months under the standard conditions adopted by the court and the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall participate as directed in a program approved by the probation office for the treatment of narcotic addiction, drug dependency, or alcohol dependency which will include urinalysis testing or other drug detection measures and may require residence or participation in a residential treatment facility.
2. The defendant shall consent to a warrantless search by a United States Probation Officer or, at the request of the probation officer, any other law enforcement officer, of the defendant's person and premises, including any vehicle, to determine compliance with the conditions of this judgment.

5. The defendant shall forfeit to the United States the Defendant's interest in the property specified in the preliminary Order of Forfeiture entered on January 22, 2008 at DE#59.
6. The defendant shall pay a $100 special assessment.

Arjay Orlando Brown was released from custody on April 8, 2013, at which time the term of supervised release commenced.

RESPECTFULLY PRESENTING PETITION FOR ACTION OF COURT FOR CAUSE AS FOLLOWS:

The releasee submitted urine screens which revealed positive results for marijuana on April 10th and 24th, 2013. The defendant signed a Waiver of Hearing agreeing to the proposed modification of supervision.
